

Unlicensed Assistant Workshop

(March 16th: 9:00—12:00 noon)

What Tasks Can Unlicensed Assistants Legally Perform?

Instructor: Kerry Kidwell

Many real estate brokerage offices and/or teams hire unlicensed assistants to assist them in their day-to-day business activities. However, often times there is a fine line between what these unlicensed individuals are able to do. It is imperative that unlicensed individuals and those licensees that employ them have a clear understanding as to what duties they can legally perform. Allowing an unlicensed assistant to engage in activities which are indicated as activities requiring a license may result in discipline against the employing licensee.
